Family Orientation

Family orientation will be held onsite for new families and virtually for returning families. New families' orientation will begin at 5:30pm and join returning families for the general orientation at 6:00pm. New families who are unable to attend in person can attend the orientation virtually. In order to help us meet compliance with MDH requirements, returning families should plan on attending virtually.

To join the orientation, click on the following Zoom meeting link at the time of meeting:
